Medical Pantry Limited
ABN 41630791516
713/585 Little Collins Street
Melbourne VIC 3000
https://medicalpantry.org

Dear Volunteer,

Your volunteer agreement

Thank you for agreeing to volunteer with Medical Pantry Limited (Organisation).

Contingent on your acceptance of the terms of this letter, the volunteer position of Volunteer Donation Sorter with the responsibilities set out in Schedule 1.

1 Volunteer

The position of Volunteer Donation Sorter is currently a volunteer position for 8 hours per month. This means that you perform all duties on a voluntary basis and you will not receive remuneration or payment for your work, other than reasonable reimbursement of expenses previously approved by the Organisation and incurred during your volunteer services.

Neither the Organisation or you intend any employment or contractual relationship to be created (that is, you are not an employee, independent contractor or consultant at the Organisation). If this changes at any time, and there is a possibility that you might undertake paid work for the Organisation, we will discuss this and document the arrangement in a formal employment contract, contract for services or other arrangement.

Your volunteer arrangement begins upon signing this agreement.

2 Location and travel

You will complete the volunteer services at wherever the Organisation reasonably requests from time to time, or as otherwise agreed with the Organisation. If for whatever reason you are unable to complete the services at the times agreed between yourself and the Organisation, you must provide prior reasonable notice to the Organisation. You acknowledge that a failure to provide such notice to the Organisation will seriously affect the Organisation's operations.

3 Services

As a volunteer you will perform the tasks and responsibilities delegated to you by the Organisation from time to time.

The Organisation expects you, and you agree, to conduct yourself in an appropriate and ethical manner, diligently provide your services, take reasonable care for your health and safety and the health and safety of others, and demonstrate respect for others and for the reputation of the Organisation in a manner compatible with your responsibilities as a volunteer for the Organisation.

You agree to comply with all reasonable requirements and directions of:

- the Organisation; and
- the owners of any premises at which the Organisation may conduct workshops (including health and safety requirements).

4 Reporting structure

During your volunteer arrangement, you will report to the Supervisor in charge of the session or as otherwise directed by the Organisation.

5 Representing the Organisation

You will not represent yourself as having the authority to represent or bind the Organisation without the prior authorisation of the Organisation.

6 Taking money on behalf of the Organisation

You will not collect money for or on behalf of the Organisation unless specifically authorised by the Organisation to do so.

7 Ending the volunteer arrangement

If for whatever reason you are unable to continue in such volunteering capacity you must provide written notice to the Organisation. You also understand and agree that the Organisation may end this volunteering arrangement by providing written notice to you.

When your volunteer arrangement ends, or as soon as practicable after it ends, you are required to promptly return all property, including information in documents or in electronic form, belonging to the Organisation.

8 Organisation policies

The Organisation has various policies. You must familiarise yourself with these policies. Where the policies place obligations on you, you must comply with them. The Organisation may review, vary, add to or withdraw the policies from time to time in its absolute discretion. To avoid doubt, the policies and any obligations on the Organisation set out in them do not form part of this agreement and are not binding on the Organisation.

We expect you, and you agree, to at all times, be bound by and comply with any policies and procedures of the Organisation (as amended) which have application to the performance of your duties as a volunteer. In particular, we expect you to comply with any workplace behaviour, occupational health and safety and privacy policies.

9 Disclosure of information

'Information' means any information about the Organisation or its business (including, but not limited to, any idea, concept, process or know–how) which:

- comes to your notice in the course of your employment; or
- is generated by you in the course of performing your duties.

'Confidential Information' means any information which is:

- confidential; and

- not in the public domain (unless in the public domain because of a breach of confidentiality).

While you are volunteering for the Organisation, you may be exposed to Confidential Information. You must not use or disclose Confidential Information unless the use or disclosure is:

- required by law;
- made as part of the proper performance of your duties; or
- agreed to in writing by the Organisation.

After you have ceased volunteering for the Organisation, and without limiting your general law obligations, you must not disclose Confidential Information unless the disclosure is:

- required by law; or
- agreed in writing by the Organisation.

You must take all reasonable and necessary precautions to maintain the secrecy and prevent disclosure of Information.

Your obligations under this clause continue after your volunteer arrangement ends.

10 Intellectual property

'Intellectual Property' means all present and future rights to intellectual property including any inventions and improvements, trade marks (whether registered or common law trade marks), designs, copyright, any corresponding property rights under the laws of any jurisdiction and any rights in respect of an invention, discovery, trade secret, secret process, know–how, concept, idea, information, process, data or formula.

The Organisation owns all Intellectual Property that you create or contribute to during your volunteer arrangement. You must do all things necessary to ensure that the Organisation owns Intellectual Property that you create or contribute to during your volunteer arrangement.

You must inform the Organisation of all Intellectual Property that you create or contribute to during your volunteer arrangement.

11 Moral Rights

'Moral Rights' means the right of attribution of authorship, the right not to have authorship falsely attributed and the right of integrity of authorship, as defined in the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth).

If you have Moral Rights in any Intellectual Property owned by the Organisation, you:

- irrevocably consent to any act or omission by the Organisation which infringes those Moral Rights;
- agree that your consent extends to acts and omissions by the Organisation's licensees and successors in title; and
- agree that your consent is a genuine consent given under Part 9 of the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) and has not been induced by duress or any false or misleading statement.

12 Privacy

In addition to the confidentiality obligations described above, you also agree to observe your obligations under Privacy legislation.

In particular, you agree to store all sensitive documents and information in a secure manner, not use or disclose private information without authorisation, and destroy or return these documents to the Organisation at the conclusion of your volunteering.

13 Equal opportunity

You agree to observe your obligations under any equal opportunity legislation and standards, including your obligations not to sexually harass others during the course of your volunteering with the Organisation.

14 Reference and background checks

This offer of volunteering with the Organisation is made to you on the understanding that the information you have provided to us is accurate and complete. However, the Organisation requires all new volunteers to undergo reference and background checking. Accordingly, you acknowledge and accept that:

- this agreement is conditional upon the satisfactory completion of the reference and background checks set out below. If the Organisation is not satisfied with the results of any of the following checks, it may withdraw this offer of volunteering made to you;
- the Organisation may carry out the following checks on you to determine your suitability for the position:
  - reference check with previous employers;
  - academic qualification check;
  - Federal Police criminal record check.

15 General

This agreement is governed by the law in force in Victoria.

This agreement states all the express terms of the agreement between the parties in respect of your volunteer arrangement. It supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations, understandings and agreements.

You acknowledge that in agreeing to volunteer with the Organisation you have not relied on any representations made by the Organisation (or its agents or employees) other than matters expressly set out in this agreement.

16 Volunteer acknowledgement

By signing this agreement, you acknowledge that:

- You have read the above terms and acknowledge them in full;

- You agree to work as a volunteer for the Organisation on the terms and conditions set out above;
- You have read and understood and agree to abide by any policies and procedures of the Organisation which have application to you as a volunteer;
- Your participation as a volunteer for the Organisation does not create any relationship of employment between you and the Organisation.
- You consent for the Organisation to use any photo/s taken during your time with the Organisation for marketing purposes.

Yours sincerely

Representative of the Board

Medical Pantry

Schedule 1 – Volunteer Donation Sorter Responsibilities

Name	Volunteer Donation Sorter
Availability	Minimum 8 hours per month
Location	Medical Pantry Warehouse – Laverton North VIC
Category	Contributing to our operational work

Role purpose
Assisting with sorting, itemising, updating inventory and order fulfilment of donated medical supplies, to help ensure a consistent supply of quality supplies to meet our Charity Partners needs. Contribute your skills to help us raise funds to support the everyday work of the Medical Pantry.

Role responsibilities
- Assist with sorting, inspecting and itemising donated medical supplies according to set standards and store requirements
- Assist with inventory management and packing of donated medical supplies
- Help assess the quality and suitability of donated medical supplies, and address any quality issues with the Program Manager
- Maintain confidentiality relating to warehouse, stock, customers, procedures, and security
- Identify hazards, assess risks and report incidents as required in line with the Handling and Receiving Donated Goods Policy – understand and apply Medical Policy policies and procedures

Knowledge, skills and experience
- Ability to work effectively as part of a team
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and a positive, can do attitude
- Appreciation for quality control standards and processes
- Ability to work efficiently and being detailed oriented and organised

Check requirements
A National Criminal History Check prior to commencement and renewed every three years (Medical Pantry will arrange this)

Learning and development
Complete the Medical Pantry Based induction

General conditions
We act always in accordance with the Medical Pantry Code of Conduct
All volunteers are required to comply with relevant State and Territory legislation requirements
We comply with the Work Safe

We demonstrate skill, knowledge and behaviour to work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people in a culturally respectful way
We may be required to assist the organisation on occasion, in times of national, state or local emergencies or major disasters